What is IASA?

The International Association of Sound and Audiovisual Archives (IASA) is a professional association and the authority that sets standards for the care, access, and long-term preservation of the world’s sound and audiovisual heritage. Through its active worldwide membership and training initiatives, IASA supports and advocates the development of best professional standards and practice amongst organisations and individuals that share these purposes.
What does IASA do?

Industry Standards - IASA publishes industry standards for managing and preserving sound and audiovisual archives which are adopted world-wide and available in many languages.

Tutorials - Tutorials and workshops are offered during conference and presented by IASA experts on a wide range of topics, relating to the needs of the membership.

IASA Journal - The IASA Journal is an open access, double-blind peer-reviewed publication that is highly regarded by scholars and the sound and audiovisual archive community.

International Relationships - IASA is a founding member of the CCAAA (Co-ordinating Council for Audiovisual Archive Associations) and has representation at strategic UNESCO meetings.
IASA Conference

The IASA conference sets an agenda for ongoing debates in sound and audiovisual preservation. Our more recent conferences were 2019 Netherlands Institute for Sound and Vision, Hilversum, Netherlands, and 2020 a virtual, joint conference with partners The Fédération Internationale des Archives de Télévision/International Federation of Television Archives (FIAT/IFTA). The most recent conference was held at Istanbul University in historic Istanbul in 2023.

The theme of the 2024 conference is “Interdisciplinary Connections” and will be held both physically and virtually at host L'Insititut Valenciá de Cultura.

The 2024 conference is an opportunity to demonstrate new technologies, new systems, and joint efforts that yield innovative services to connect our audiovisual heritage with a global audience. This will include new and diverse use cases and effect more robust and resilient preservation efforts. IASA is committed to creating an inclusive environment that serves all people and their cultural heritage.

Why you should become an IASA Sponsor

Being an IASA Sponsor is a unique opportunity to showcase your business in an international forum attended by key players in sound and audiovisual broadcasting, archiving, preservation, and restoration. Our 55th Annual Conference is being held with partners, L'Institut Valenciá de Cultura, and will be truly innovative and will provide a global audience.

Sponsoring this event not only facilitates IASA’s initiatives in the world of sound and audiovisual archiving, but constitutes valuable social investment in maintaining the education, training, standards and guidance we provide. Finally, your generous sponsorship ensures that participation in our conference remains affordable and inclusive in today’s global economy.
